

NEOS SIGNAGE RULES - MORAY

- For the purposes of the Act, the definition of "road" includes footway and verge.
- Contact details should be provided on the back of all authorised signs.
- The General Conditions of Permission are available on the Council's website.
- This permission does not warrant the approved signs as safe. The responsibility for safety of the signs, including erection and removal, lies with the NEOS member
- No sign should emulate or attempt to copy a recognised traffic sign.
- No signs shall be fixed to any street furniture, including lighting columns or traffic signs.
- Notwithstanding the above, The Moray Council retains the right to remove any sign or object, under any circumstances if it is felt to be unsuitable or dangerous.
- Community event signs will be permitted no more than 7 days before an event takes place and must be removed as soon as practicable, but no more than 3 days after the event.
- No signs will be allowed at junctions or in the first 50 metres when exiting a junction.
- Signs will not be permitted on the approach to a junction within 100 metres on A or B class roads or within 50 metres on a C class or unclassified road.
- . The maximum height of any sign above the verge level (ie to the top of the sign) shall be 750mm and the minimum clearance from the edge of the carriageway to the nearest edge of the sign shall be 600mm.
- The maximum size of sign should be A3 and the minimum letter size should be 50mm.
- The application for permission to display the yellow signs has been made by NEOS on behalf of the Moray Exhibitors it does not however accept any liability as outlined below.

Indemnity The member shall indemnify The Moray Council as Roads Authority for and against all actions, claims, demands, costs, charges, damages, losses and expenses of whatsoever kind or nature which may be brought or made against them or incurred by them in respect of the negligence, omission or default of the holder of this permission or those for whom the holder of this permission is responsible arising in respect of any operations authorised by this permission unless due to the negligence or other breach of legal duty on the part of the Council or of any person for whom the Council are responsible.